Award Citation

January 19, 2005

The Florida Keys Council For People With Disabilities is pleased to present its Award for outstanding service to disabled persons in Monroe County to Jim Malloch.

This award recognizes his steady leadership in his positions as BOCC Liaison and Treasurer of this Council from 1997 to present and Director of the Monroe County Division of Community Services from 1991 to present. His contributions have been instrumental in making this Council and the Community Services Division he leads effective tools in the service of disabled persons. We especially commend him for the development of a County wide accessible transportation system. Himself a disabled veteran and retired US Navy officer, Mr. Malloch has dedicated his life to the service to others. By his compassion, kindness, and determined efforts on behalf of others, he has been instrumental in assistance to many needy segments of our community. Through his actions and under his leadership the lives of over seventeen thousand disabled citizens of Monroe County have been materially improved.

On behalf of the disabled citizens of the Florida Keys this plaque is presented to Jim Malloch with sincere gratitude for his steadfast leadership and dedicated service.
